Section 508 & Architectural Barriers Act

Notification of Rights

Notice of Rights

Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. § 794d)

Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act (Section 508) requires that all electronic and information technology (also referred to as information and communication technology or ICT) developed, procured, maintained, or used by a federal agency be accessible to people with disabilities. Examples of ICT include websites, telephones, multimedia devices, and copiers. Access available to individuals with disabilities must be comparable to access available to others.

Standards for Section 508 compliance are developed and maintained by the United States Access Board. Additional information about the Access Board's standards and Section 508 may be found at www.section508.gov.

If you have questions about the ABMC Section 508 program supporting ICT, you may send an email to section508@abmc.gov.

For information about filing a complaint against ABMC under Section 508, contact:

CompuCon Incorporated
Phone: 703-684-7619 Fax: 703-684-8585
Email: complaints@compuconinc.com

To file a complaint against another agency, contact that agency's Section 508 Coordinator. Contact information for Section 508 Coordinators may be found at www.section508.gov/508-coordinator-listing.

Notice of Rights

Architectural Barriers Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C. §§ 4151 - - 57)

The Architectural Barriers Act (ABA) requires access to facilities that are designed, built, altered, or leased with federal funds. The Access Board is the federal agency responsible for enforcing the ABA.

The Access Board's accessibility standards are available on its website at www.access-board.gov/guidelines-and-standards/buildings-and-sites/about-the-aba-standards, and information about filing a complaint with the agency may be found at <https://www.access-board.gov/enforcement/>.
